Junior Spatial Economics Conference

WELCOME PAGE

Sciences Po Department of Economics - 28 rue des Saints Pères - 75007 Paris

We extend the warmest of welcomes to economists from across Europe, and from the rest of the world!

Our humblest of thanks to the Centre for Economic Policy Research (CEPR) for their invaluable assistance in helping us bring this meeting together.

We also gratefully acknowledge the financial support of our partnership with the Banque de France, and of the European Research Council (ERC).

Here is a rundown of what we think you should know.

The Junior Spatial Economics Conference is an annual conference. This is the fourth edition and the first to be held in Europe!

- The workshop aims to bring together a (deliberately) small group of junior researchers to discuss topics in spatial and urban economics broadly defined in an informal setting.
- In this edition we particularly aim to connect scholars working on different sides of the Atlantic.
- Nine papers will be presented and discussed over a day and a half: each presentation will be 45 min, followed by a 10-min discussion and 5-min open-floor remarks;
- Dinner is organised on Thursday evening (restaurant to be confirmed).
- Coffee and lunch will be provided on site.
- Due to limited space, attendance to the conference is by invitation only

IMPORTANT We would like the 2024 Junior Spatial Economics Conference to be an enriching, intellectually challenging experience as possible for all: a successful conference is a harassment-free and inclusive conference!

Everyone should feel comfortable - regardless of gender, gender identity and expression, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, ethnicity, religion, or status - at all times, throughout the conference and during social events.

Please do not hesitate to contact your representative from Sciences Po (see above) if you encounter a problem.
